The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical Discovery" cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

A Reliable Remedy FOR CATARRH

is quickly absorbed. Gives Relief at Once. It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts. at Druggists or by mail. Liquid Cream Balm for use in atomizers 75 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

Rev. Madison C. Peters, once a Baptist and now a free lance wherever the lists are open, discussed at some length yesterday morning in New York the question which has been stirring up the New York Board of Education as to whether Christmas carols should be sung in the public schools. Mr. Peters preached the Thanksgiving sermon in the Jewish Temple, in One Hundred and Sixteenth street, near Lexington avenue, and, among other things, said:

"Once you teach Christ in the public schools, the next question will be: What denomination shall interpret him? The church and the synagogue for religion; the public school for education only, is the original American idea, and any other movement is a step backwards.

"This is a free country, and if any church wants to dance a sectarian dance it has a right to do so under the constitution, but I insist that for the sectarian dance the sectarian fiddlers be paid with sectarian funds, and not with the money of the State.

"Teaching Christ does not make a nation Christian. Is there a greater travesty on Christ in all the world than Russia? yet the schools are religious there. Let the churches keep their hands off the government.

"When ecclesiastics, whether in Italy, Spain, France or England, interfered with the school system, they put a gag on the human intellect and a padlock on the lips. The history of human progress was written on the backs of until our fathers, Christians and Jews alike, forsook the Old World tyrannies and, believing in free thought and free speech as the sacred right of the individual, quickened by the principal of human liberty, reared here a temple to the God of enfranchised conscience.

"States have given the children to the ecclesiastics for instruction. Look at the pupils! Italy, the mother of genius, reduced to a hand-organ, a monkey and a fruit stand. Spain, magnificently endowed, reduced to beggary and illiteracy. Russia, unspeakably infamous! It is time that the mummified conservatives and visionless traditionists, who vainly attempt to go forward by walking backward, be warned that America is alive to the perils of the deadly foes of liberty who would sectarianize our free institutions."

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at all drug stores.

PERIL OF BRIDAL PARTY.

Hanging for fifteen minutes in a closed carriage from a viaduct forty fee above the railroad track, with freight trains passing nearly every moment, was the thrilling experience of a bride, her husband, and two witnesses within a half hour after the nuptial knot had been tied yesterday evening in St. Louis. The two white horses attached to the vehicle plunged about in the air for several moments, and then managed to break their traces. They fell to the ground just after a train had passed and then, gaining their feet, dashed down the track, apparently uninjured by the fall. The driver, who had been thrown to the ground and escaped with only a few bruises, sought the aid of railroad men near the scene of the accident in the rescue of the bridal party from its perilous position.

Harry Stoppleman and Katherine Sturman, both of St. Louis, were married yesterday evening. The bride's brother and sister-in-law served in the capacity of witnesses. After the ceremony they told the driver to take them about the city before returning to the bride's parents for the wedding feast.

The Fourteenth street viaduct, over which the vehicle was compelled to pass, is being repaired, and almost in the center is a wide gap, which, because of darkness could not be discerned by the driver. Unchecked, the horses continued their pace over the bridge and then suddenly plunged headlong through the opening.

The rear wheels of the carriage caught and held fast to the structure, but the frantic struggle of the horses to liberate themselves threatened to pull down the conveyance, when, fortunately, the traces broke. Railroad men lost no time in getting on top of the viaduct, and soon had the carriage out of the hole. When an inventory was taken it was found that, aside from being badly frightened, a few scratches and the broken traces, here was little damage.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Every bigot and fanatic,
In home, and church, and state,
Imagines he is truly pure

JOHN A. JOYCE.

RICHARD CROKER.

Richard Croker's latest achievement proves again he knows the value of money. The former Tammany boss has become a tenant-purchaser under the Irish Land act of 1903. The Land Commission has advanced $25,000 to Mr. Croker to pay for a farm, adjoining his fine estate at Stellorgan. He has rented the farm from Lord Carysfort.

To prove that Mr. Croker ranks with a Rothschild or a Morgan, it should be stated that this $25,000 lent by the Land Commission will be repaid, with 3½ per cent. interest, in diminishing instalments extending over sixty-sight years. When Mr. Croker first requested the loan it was refused. Then he appeared before the Land Commission and made an explanation.

"You gentlemen are treating me unfairly," he told the commissioners. "You think I am the millionaire which people say I am. I tell you I am not a millionaire. I am as much entitled to the benefits of this act as any other tenant in all Ireland."

So Mr. Croker has done a fine and legitimate stroke of business at the expense of the British exchequer. But much surprise is expressed that an alien can become a purchaser under an act which was passed for the relief of poor Irish tenants.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098.

PROHIBITION, which has failed to prohibit in the north, but which is spreading through the south, is attracting he attention of some of the northern papers and is being adversely criticized. The Philadelphia Record says:

Prohibition in the South is mainly a scheme for keeping liquor away from negroes while allowing Caucasians their usual refreshment. The white man has always been willing to deny fire-water to the Indian, but the aborigines were rounded up on reservations, while the negro is not segregated. The nearest Alabama could come to it was to permit the distribution of liquor in clubs. The white man can get liquor at a club, while the negro has to go to a saloon for his. Georgia has a more drastic law, and after its enactment it was discovered that even the use of sacramental wine was unlawful. It has also been discovered that wines cannot be served at receptions and card parties, and several leaders of society in Americus are trembling lest the grand jury should indict them under the charge of Judge Littlejohn, of the Superior Court.

ABE HUMMEL, at one time a power in New York, hated and feared as he was by a certain element, is rapidly approaching the last scene of all which ends life's eventful history. He is slowly dying from nephritis in Blackwell's Island penitentiary where he was sent to serve a term on a charge of conspiracy. The dimunitive man was for many years despised and equally feared by such in New York as were conscious of skeletons in their closets, and it was said that the little lawyer profited to a great extent by the short-comings of a class whose inner histories he obtained in some manner. He has played his part and it is now a matter of a short time when the curtain will be rung down upon the last act of his career.

A SERIOUS feature in connection with the recent excitement in financial circles is the number of suicides of bank officials and ex-officials. During the past few weeks a number have been driven to self-destruction and others may be contemplating ending their anxieties in the same manner. Life on a stock exchange is necessarily strenuous even when members are acting in good faith, but when they place thorns in their pillows and have their sleep disturbed by visions of investigations or, in certain cases, penitentiaries, their anxieties bring on desperation which in turn ends in suicide.

UPTON SINCLAIR, author of "The Jungle," is at Battle Creek, Mich., and has a dozen persons pledged to a new plan for the simple life. It is to be a colony on wheels, a wagon trip on two continents. Mr Sinclair says by this manner of living he expects to free himself from plumbers and carpenters, steam heat and taxes. It will be a practical protest against landlords. Mr. Sinclair is also aware of the educational feature of the trip, and his children will have an opportunity to study nations as they exist and not through books.

THE Woman's Club of Chicago has declared against Christmas gifts and Christmas shooping as manias leading to degeneracy. It may be that the Christmas-giving custom, especially its extravagancies and its interchange of presents, will become effete; but as to shopping, it would be unreasonable to expect women to give up their most delightful diversion. Besides, asks the Baltimore News, what would be the use of men working and making money if women could not shop?

IT would seem that the limit in adulteration had been reached when it is learned that the butter-milk sold in Chicago is made of skimmed milk and acids. And if in Chicago why not in other places?

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 29.

The United States ranks third among the nations in the magnitude of her imports, according to a statement published today by the Department of Commerce and Labor. The United Kingdom heads the list with $2,958,289,000; Germany is second with $1,696,660,000 and the United States is credited with a total of $1,434,421,000, or 14 7 per cent of the total imports of the world. The statistics show that the countries situated geographically near to the United States draw the greater portion of their imports from this country. Santo Domingo and Haiti take 70 per cent of their total imports from the United States, while Mexico, Canada, Cuba and Central and South American States show large percentages.

Justice John Marshall Harlan, of the U. S. Supreme Court is today celebrating his thirtieth anniversary of service on the bench, at the age of seventy-four. He has served longer in the Supreme Court, than any other justice, not even excepting Chief Justice Fuller. Four years ago, when he reached the age of permitted retirement on full pay, Justice Harlan said that if he should quit the work to which he was accustomed, his life would become dreary, and, prehaps would be shortened. It has been said that Justice Harlan's robust health and usefulness is due to his sleeping with golf sticks under his pillow, the bible in one hand and a flask in the other, but the latter statement is probably based sorely on the fact that the Justice comes from Kentucky.

Ezra Meeker, the "76 years young," traveler who has driven a team of oxen from Pollyup, Washington, over the old Oregon Trail, called at the White House today and had a talk with the President. He is anxious to have the government make the old trail a national highway. The President told Meeker that he was in favor of placing memorials at intervals along the trial in order to mark it for posterity, but doubted the feasibility of building a government road. After the interview the President went out in front of the White House and inspected the prairie "schooner," in which Meeker has made his journey.

President Amador of the republic of Panama will tonight share honors with Admiral Evans, at a dinner and reception to be held at the White House, the first large social function of the season. The Panamanian executive, with the members of his family, spent the morning seeing the sights of the capital. In the afternoon President Amador will make his first formal call on President Roosevelt, which will be returned an hour later, at Dr. Amador's hotel. While in the city, the President of Panama will meet the delegates to the Central American conference. Tomorrow he will visit the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon. He talked enthusiastically today regarding the progress of work on the Panama canal.

John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, will have no opposition for the minority leadership of the House in the democratic House caucus Saturday. This was assured yesterday when Representative De Armond, of Missouri, after consultation with the friends who have been backing him for the minority leadership, announced that he would not oppose Williams' re-election for the reason that the latter had recently come out for the nomination of William J. Bryan as the democratic Presidential condidate in next year's campaign.

The State Department was notified today by the French government, that another extension has been granted on putting into effect the decree assessing a tariff on the importation of coffee from Porto Rico. This action is taken because of the pending tariff negotiations now on between the United States and France.

The Boston Medical Institute, and the Bellevue Mecical Institute, both of Chicago, were today denied the use of the mails.

There will be a large representation of officials and social Washington at the Army-Navy football game at Philadelphia, tomorrow. Nearly every high officer of the two branches of the service stationed in the capital will be present.

Congratulations on the arrival of his new Thanksgiving baby boy are inundating Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson's home here.

Conflict of expert opinions as to what kind of an army officer should ride a horse has brought about such a state of confusion, especially in the engineer corps, that the President and Secretary Taft will be compelled to solve the problem.

The President's message will probably not be sent to Congress before Tuesday, on account of the expected early adjournment of the Senate on Monday, in respect to the memory of deceased senators.

The races at Bennings will close tomorrow. The attendance yesterday and today have been good.

It is reported here that if certain Southern democrats in Congress can carry out a plan on which they are working, Mr. Bryan may be asked to stand for election on a platform which will repudiate government ownership of railroads, the initistive and referendu and free silver. The latter course, he admits, is out of date, but his friends say he will relish none too well the declaration in favor of a single gold standard.

THE EXPOSITION.

With addresses by distinguished churchmen and songs of praise from a great chorus, joined in by the mighty congregation made up from churches of all denominations, as well as those who own no creed, national Thanksgiving services were conducted at Jamestown yesterday.

President Tucker presided over the exercises, and the speakers were Mgr. O'Connell, president of the Catholic University of America at Washington, who came as the personal representative of Cardinal Gibbons; Dr. W. W. Moore, president of the Presbyterian Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, and Bishop Charles B. Galloway, of the Southern Methodist Church. Bishop Randolph, of the Episcopal diocese of Southern Virginia, and Rabbi Calisch, of Richmond, who were expected, could not be present. The Exposition will close tomorrow night.

FOOTBALL.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College of North Carolina defeated Virginia, 10 to 4, on Lafayette Field, in Norfolk, yesterday.

In Washington yesterday George Washington and Georgetown played a tie game.

Davidson College defeated Virginia Military Institute at Roanoke yesterday by a score of 10 to 6.

The Prices of Meats.

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Investigation today shows that no matter whether the packers or the retailers are right in their controversy over which is responsible for present prices of meat, the public is suffering from excessive prices that are not warranted by conditions. The packers contend that they have reduced prices to a degree commensurate with the reductions in prices of cattle, hogs and sheep at the stock yards. One class of retailers contend that the wholesale prices to them have not been reduced. Another class declares both wholesale and retail prices have been reduced materially, but the figures gathered from the markets do not bear out this statement. Meat on the hoof shows reductions ranging from 29 to 40 per cent. Retailers meat shows increases in some instances except in porterhouse steaks, but there are no reductions of more than a fraction of one cent a pound.

The Burns-Moir Fight.

London, Nov. 29.—A foreign war could hardly stir England to a higher pitch of excitement than prevails over Monday night's Burns-Moir 20-round fight. England has been so long unable to break into the heavy weight championship class that the public had pretty nearly lost interest in events of that kind. But Britain has hopes of Moir. If he wins the whole country will go mad. It is safe to say that no ring contest in a generation has aroused a tenth as much interest. The fight will be a real society function. Leaders in the smart set—men, of course—will lose prestige if they don't attend. The rush for seats is something terrific. Any quantity of them have sold for as high a premium as $ 00, and by tomorrow night the figure may be half as much more.

A jury to try Caleb Powers, the fourth time for the murder of William Goebel, having been secured, at Georgetown, Ky., the Commonwealth today began its side of the case.

Preparing to attend the funeral of his wife, to whom he had been wedded for fifty years, Joseph M. Williams, of Philadelphia, was stricken with paralysis Wednesday at noon, and died an hour after the body of his devoted spouse was removed from their home to the cemetery.

Fire, which jumped a block in a spectacular leap from one brewery to another, practically wiped out the plants of the Tosetti and Mullen brewery companies, with a loss of $300,000, in Chicago yesterday afternoon, while it did comparatively little damage to the warehouses and factories between these plants.

The Western Maryland Railroad Company has laid off nearly 1,000 workmen and has reduced the working hours in the Hagerstown, Md., Union Bridge, and Elkins shops from ten to nine hours. This action is due, it is said, to the difficulty in getting funds to carry out the construction work contemplated. The shop hands have been laid off temporarily for the same reason. In order to keep as large a force as possible employed in the shops it was decided to reduce the working day by one hour.

According to the advance sheets from the office of the director of the census concerning the "blue book," which contains the names of all the government employes, there are 28,947 such workers in the District of Columbia, and of this number 8,961 are accredited to the District. New York is second on the list, 2,823 residents of that State holding places in Washington; Maryland is third, with 2,192, while Arizona is last, with but 19. To all these employes in Washington there is disbursed annually the sum of $81,541,235 annually in salarics, making the average $1,089.

After crossing the Atlantic in a ship fitted with stalls especially for their voyage, the Sultan of Oakland, prize bull, and eight of his daughters arrived at the Penshurst Farm, the property of Percival Roberts, at Narberth, near Philadelphia, yesterday. From New York to Narberth they traveled in palace cars. The Sultan is to be king of the herd of registered cattle which were on the meadows of Penshurst before his arrival. He cost his owner $15,000, and was purchased by Mr. Roberts when he and Mrs. Roberts were abroad last summer. They came to New York from Liverpool in stately stalls, padded and equipped as befitted royalty.

Supposed Infernal Machine!

New York, Nov. 29.—Anthony Comstock, disciple of purity and arbiter of morals, received in his mail today a box believed to be an infernal machine. He sent it to the bureau of combustibles where it will be examined. The small wooden box, with a sliding top and a wire protruding, certainly could not have been intended to deceive him as to its character. On the top was a skull and cross bones and this inscription: "This is your turkey." On the end of the box were printed vulgar and obscene suggestions for Comstock. He was shocked almost as much by the message as he was by the fear that he had a death-dealing machine in his hands.

Situation More Easy.

New York, Nov. 29.—That the easing of the money situation has extended to the savings institutions which were forced to protect themselves by enforcing the giving of notice before making withdrawal, was shown today by the announcement of the Union Dime Savings institution that the sixty day notice required since October 25 has been removed and deposits will be released upon demand.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 29.—11 a. m.—After a show of strength in the early trading the market became heavy under the lead of Missouri-Pacific and Western Union. Both those stocks sold down to the lowest prices reached in many years. It was general comment that while Union Pacific and Reading were being held strong other stocks had been sold to as much of an extent as the market would take and the room was full of rumors of renewed forced liquidation. Reading made a ⅜ advance to 84⅜ in early trading. When the pronounced weakness developed in the Gould stocks the trading element turned to the bear side of Reading as well as in the rest of the list. The first hour's trading generally resulted in declines ranging from fractions to over 2 points.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Sir.—In regard to your editorial on the school conference in session at Roanoke the writer would like to heartily endorse any compulsory measure that has for its object the punctual attendance of pupils. I believe that one of the most urgent needs of our city is a truant officer with power to compel boys roaming the streets to attend school. The gathering of dozens of boys at the various train stations should be stopped; they are not only losing valuable time that should be spent in school, but also serve as an inducement to other boys whose parents desire them to attend school regularly to absent themselves. The writer with numerous other citizens would be glad to have the city officials adopt laws to improve the school attendance.

Dr. Thomas W. Smith died of peritonitis at his home near Bethel Academy Wednesday night, aged fifty-two. He is survived by his wife and one daughter. He was the eldest son of Anderson D. Smith, now living at an advanced age.

The dead body of Charles H. Hunter was found yesterday in a mud puddle in the southeast section of Roanoke. He left home about 11 o'clock Wednesday night and is supposed to have stumbled over an embankment where the city is engaged in making a fill. He was unmarried.

The Middlesex Hunt Club, of Massachusetts, met their English pack of hounds yesterday at "Oatlands," the country home of William Corcoran Eustis, near Leesburg. Riding to hounds as guests of the club were Assistant Secretary of State Robert Bacon, and Postmaster General Meyer, both of whom have hunting stables in Leesburg.

A fire, the most disastrous in Charlottesville in ten years, started about 8 o'clock last night in the Jefferson Auditorium, Charlottesville's only theater, and spread to Ebenezer Church, a colored Baptist Church. The theater and the church were totally destroyed and other buildings were somewhat damaged by fire and water, including the stocks of J. H. Dickinson's grocery and A. G. Bennett's tailoring establishment. The loss is about $40,060. The fire originated on the stage. The electric current, according to the janitor, was switched off the entire building, and there had been no fire in it for a week.

At the M. E. Church, at Markham, Wednesday, Miss Edith Virginia Green, daughter of Mr. James R. Green, was married to Mr. James Tulloss Jones, of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank A. Strother, of Fairfax, assisted by Rev. J. M. Kline, of Linden. The maid of honor was Miss Mary Phillips, of Alexandria. William E. McKay, of Baltimore, was best man. The bride's attendants were the Misses Katie G. Cable and Gaylord Gibson, and Miss Virginia Cable was flower girl. The ushers were Russell A. Jones, of Baltimore; J. Frank Jones, of Washington; Alexander G. Green, of Markham, and Antrim A. McKay, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Perry, ninety-one years of age, was assaulted in her home in Richmond last night by James Booker, a negro, who gained access to her apartment through a rear window. It is believed to have been the intention of the negro, when he entered the house, to seek the apartment of Mrs. A. C. Smith, a daughter of Mrs. Perry. Mrs. Smith who was in an upstairs room, rushed into the street, crying loudly for help. Policeman J. B. Goodman captured the man in Mrs. Perry's room, beating him into insensibility with his night stick. Booker was taken to a hospital, where he is still in an unconscious condition. The condition of Mrs. Perry is critical. The negro had dragged Mrs. Perry from her bed to the floor and maltreating her when the officer pulled him away.

Train No. 37, the Washington and Southwestern vestibuled limited, of the Southern Railway, struck and killed three negroes early yesterday morning on the Staunton river bridge, twenty-five miles below Lynchburg. The negroes were so badly mangled that identification is impossible. They were crossing the bridge when they were run down by the train. By a peculiar coincidence, Engineer McKinney, of Spencer, N. C., who was engineer of the train carrying President Spencer when he was killed early on Thanksgiving Day 1906, was in charge of No. 37 yesterday. He had five brothers who were locomotive engineers, one of whom was killed in the wreck of the Jacksonville express at Danville, ten days after President Spencer's death. Another brother also was killed on duty.

COL. MOSBY'S BOOK ON STUART'S CAVALRY.

The reader for the publishing house of Moffat, Yard and Company, of New York, gives the following opinion about Colonel Mosby's book which they will publish in January.

"I have read with much interest the manuscript of Colonel Mosby's book, "Stuart's Cavalry in the Gettysburg Campaign." Let me frankly say at the start that this is not a book of the so-called popular type. There is no doubt of its value as a contribution to the literature of the civil war, and as such it will make a strong appeal to all survivors, on both sides, of the great struggle. It will be of interest, too, to critical students of the period. It is an able presentation of the case, such as counsel would make for his client. For my own part, I could wish that there were more incidents, some sketches of character, and sidelights on the personalities of the distinguished and gallant men with whom the book deals. But that has evidently not been the author's intention. Colonel Mosby must have material in his own experience for a dozen thrilling romances, abounding in incident, where mirth and pathos, gallant deeds and hairbreadth escapes were daily occurrences. I hope that some day we may have from his pen such a book, accurate of course in its statements, but free from the great array of documentary evidence of which the present book is full. Such a book from such an author would be of great popular value and have a sale much larger than 'Stuart's Cavalry,' etc."

THE LOAVES AND THE FISHES.

Rev. R. J. Campbell, paster of the City Temple, London, provoked angry interruptions from his congregation while preaching in the temple yesterday. He asked his hearers if they really believed in a literal sense the story of Christ feeding the multitude.

"The feeding of the multitude was not a feeding of the body, but a feeding of the soul with the bread of life," he said. "It is a beautiful symbol, but the beauty is destroyed and the teaching ruined when you seek to reduce it to a physical plane."

The clergyman was here interrupted by cries of "No." But he asked to be allowed to continue, and his request was granted. Then he said:

"If Christ came to London today He would not be received gladly by His church. He would be regarded as a revolutionary trying to upset the established order in both church and state.

"He would not attempt to perform the miracle of feeding a multitude in the East End with physical food, but He would strike deep and hard at the causes which make poverty and degradation."

This part of his address was applauded.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Mrs. Bradley's Trial.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 29.—The story of the trial of Mrs. Bradley so far as told from the witness stand, drew to its end today. When court opened, after the Thanksgiving recess, there remained to be called by the government in rebuttal only a few minor witnesses and the expert alienists.

The government reached the climax of its case with the testimony of its alienists, Dr. Edward Brush, of Baltimore, and Dr. Smith E. Jelliffe, of New York. These men who have been watching closely the development of the case, hold as their opinion that Mrs. Bradley's impulse to do the shooting was not insanity, but a fit of jealous rage.

The final arguments to the jury will be begun the first of next week. These will take several days, as five of the six attorneys on both sides of the case will speak. District Attorney Baker will close for the government, and Judge Powers for the defense. If there be no delay in reaching a verdict, Mrs. Bradley will probably hear her fate on December 4, exactly one year from the date on which she left Salt Lake City, coming to Washington on what proved to be a tragic errand.

The "surprise," of the defense in its rebuttal testimony was the appearance of the Rev. Dr. David Utter, of Denver, who officiated at the baptism of the elder of the two Bradley children, Arthur Brown, jr. He was referred to in Mrs. Bradley's letters as "the priest," and had, in his ministerial capacity, much to do with Senator Brown and Mrs. Bradley.

District Attorney Baker submitted to the court certain "prayers, with reference to the instructions to the jury." As he mentioned the phrase "murder in the first or second degree," Mrs. Bradley shuddered.

After brief testimony by Dr. Shute, relating to Mrs. Bradley's physicial condition, after the shooting, Edward McLean, a newspaper reporter, took the stand to say that he believed Mrs. Bradley was sane.

Dr. Utter said he saw Mrs. Bradley at her home in Salt Lake. "I had been her friend and pastor for many years," he said, "and I went to see her in her trouble."

Anticipating the government's move in having Dr. Utter contradict Mrs. Bradley's testimony, Attorney Hoover demanded that the specific question be put to him.

"We talked of her possible marriage to Arthur Brown," continued Dr. Utter. "She said she believed he would marry her. I urged her to give up the idea. I said a woman was at a great disadvantage suing for the love of a man. But she pleaded that for her children's sake he ought to do it. 'When he is brought to the point, and a gun is pointed at him, and he is told that he must, he will marry me,' she declared."

Dr. Utter's testimony rather favored the case of the defense before its completion. "She was possessed with the idea of her love for Brown. She was under great mental strain—almost unhinged," he said. "The compulsion she referred to, speaking of a gun, did not necessarily refer to her own act, but to her brother's possibly, or some member of her family."

Dr. Edward Brush, of Baltimore, expert alienist for the prosecution, was then called. Asked what he observed of the demeanor of Mrs. Bradley, whom he has kept under security for a week or more in the court room, he said:

"Nothing unusual of any character. On the stand she was perfectly collected, and has shown a high degree of intelligence.

"Her pallor" he explained, "was that characteristic of those that have suffered as she has suffered—from smallpox."

In answer to the hypothetical question, he said:

"I see no reason for assuming that the person was anything but sane."

To other questions, Dr. Brush affirmed that in his belief Mrs. Bradley knew right from wrong, and was able to control her actions.

Dr. Brush denied that the insanity attributed to Mrs. Bradley according to the hypothetical question was in any way similar to that usually resulting from septic poisoning.

His testimony was the most serious obstacle yet recognized in the way of the defense toward securing Mrs. Bradley's acquittal on the insanity plea.

He attacked Mrs. Bradley's story of the shooting itself "as inconsistent with any form of insanity," drawing attention particularly to her apparently sudden lapse of memory. Of her conduct subsequent to the shooting he also said there was nothing to indicate insanity.

Judge Powers and the district attorney tilted sharply over the cross examination, showing that Dr. Brush had been employed by the government to testify.

Dr. Smith E. Jelleffe, of New York, professor of mental diseases at Fordham University, followed Dr. Brush on the stand.

District Attorney Baker was propounding a hypothetical question, differing in some details from that of the defense when recess was taken.

After putting Mrs. Bradley on the stand for a few minor questions this afternoon, the defense closed its evidence in sur-rebuttal, and the taking of testimony in the case was formally concluded by both sides.

Soaked Codfish Float Ship.

New York, Nov. 29.—Their ship kept afloat for five days by the swelling of codfish carried as cargo, the crew of the schooner Dictator was rescued by the steamer Aras and arrived yesterday at Quanantine, filled with the proper spirit of Thanksgiving. Sailing from St. John's, N. B., on November 13, with a load of codfish, for Oporto, Portugal, the schooner had barely got out to sea when she encountered a gale. Water seeped rapidly through her hatches and the pumps were manned. For a time she filled, then suddenly she seemed to right herself. The water getting into the codfish cargo caused it to swell and the leaks were stopped. By keeping at the pumps the schooner was kept afloat until Tuesday night, when rockets were seen by the Welsh oil tanker Aras, and the skipper of the Dictator and his five men were taken off.

Freight Train Strikes Trolley Car.

Waterbury, Conn., Nov. 29.—A freight train bound for Hartford on the Highland division, crashed into a double track trolley car aboard of which were thirteen persons including the motorman and conductor, at 6:40 this morning. Five of the passengers were killed and the other six were more or less seriously injured. The motorman climbed through a window and escaped and the conductor, who was out on the tracks and signalled the car to cross, escaped unhurt. The accident occurred just north of the temporary union station. The crossing is equipped with gates, and the gateman, who has been arrested, says a passenger train had just arrived from Watertown, and he did not see the approaching freight, a heavy train, hauled by two engines. The gates were raised and the conductor of the trolley car, who had run out to signal the car, gave the signal to go ahead, it is alleged. The car was picked up by the big mogul engine on the head end and carried a distance of several hundred feet, being crushed like a shell. The occupants of the car were tossed about amid the debris and several of them literally ground to pieces before the freight could be stopped. The conductor has been arrested.

Fighting in Algeria.

Oran, Algeria, Nov. 29.—Heavy French enforcements have been thrown into the field and fierce fighting is in progress today along the frontier, against the Beni Hassen tribesmen, who after capturing a French outpost at Bab-El-Assa yesterday, meeting with a subsequent repulse and retreating across the border, have again invaded Algeria, began burning villages and are defying the Gallic force to check them.

Including those slain in yesterday's and today's fighting the losses on both sides are estimated at 200 or 300. The Beni Hassen forces are not only wreaking tremendous havoc, but have incited a half dozen other tribes to revolt. The rebels' strength is rapidly growing, the entire frontier will soon be aflame unless the revolt is quickly suppressed, and the declaration of a holy war is constantly expected. Though reinforced the French force is still inadequate, and urgent calls are being sent for more men.

Douma Defiled.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 29.—Premier Stolypin served notice on the Douma today that the Czar's autocratic power will be maintained at any cost. His declaration had especial significance in view of the assembly's refusal, a few days ago, to include recognition of the autocracy in its address to the throne. The government message, as read by the Premier plainly informed the radical members of the Douma that their "excess" will be opposed to the limit of the administration's strength and emphatically pledged the inviability of private property. The concluding promise is to be taken, not as an assurance of protection to the people, but as the government's refusal to consider the radicals' demand for the enforced distribution of the great landholders' estates among their tenants. The conservatives received the message with a tempest of cheers; the radicals in gloomy silence.

Two Stokers Drowned.

New York Nov. 29.—Two of the Cunard liner Mauretania's stokers tumbled from the forward gang plank as they were returning from a Thanksgiving night celebration early to day and were drowned. Head stoker Hall Kelley, who has already saved ten lives and holds many medals from various British societies, spent a long time in the icy water looking for the missing men, but failed to find them. He was himself so much exhausted by his exertions that he had to be hauled to the dock by Oiler Pat McGinnis. The drowned men's names cannot be ascertained until the Mauretania's 400 stokers can be paraded and roll called. One of them, when he lost his footing on the gang plank, clutched at his companion; both went into the water together and are supposed to have been drawn by the tide under the vessel.

Suicide of Barge Captain.

Boston, Nov. 29—All the precaution taken at his own suggestion could not prevent the suicide of Captain William H. Wright, of the Philadelphia and Reading barge Thomaston. On the voyage from Philadelphia to Boston, Wright came to the steward and told him that grief for the death of his young wife was driving him to self-destruction and begged him to keep a careful watch. Tuesday night, while the barge was off Seabright, N. J., the steward, at Wright's request, threw his revolver overboard, but two hours later returning to the cabin after a momentary absence, he found the captain's berth empty. Wright, unable to bear the strain, had leaped overboard.

Won $4,600 at Poker.

Boston, Nov. 29.—Andreas Perelio, an Italian opera singer, can give most Americans points at their own game of poker. The members of the San Carlo Grand Opera Company, who are here today after an eleven-day trip from Genoa, Italy, say that Perelio spent all his time on the way over, except brief periods for sleep and refreshment, in the cabin where he won $4,600 at the great American game. Eleven sessions of eight hours each left Ramon Blancart, a Spanish baritone, it is said, $3,000 to the bad, while a half dozen others who "sat in" with the redoubtable Perelio have cause to regret it. "I'd rather play poker than eat," says Perelio.

General Jastremski was a Confederate veteran and formerly a Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the United States.

A Hard Debt to Pay

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The ominous dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by all druggist, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Jumped to His Death.

Gloucester, Mass., Nov. 29.—One man was killed, a man and woman fatally injured and several others had thrilling escapes today in a fire in the Harvard Boarding house. La Fontaine, the dead man, jumped from a sixth story window and broke his neck.

The fire broke out shortly before daylight while all the forty boarders were asleep. Many, cut off from the stairs, rushed to the windows and while most of them slid down the rope fire escapes to the ground, a few hung suspended as the flames shot out the windows above their heads. Firemen yelled to them to wait until they could raise a ladder, but Fonton and Albert Anderson, after reaching the end of their ropes, dropped the remaining forty feet to the sidewalk. Anderson broke both legs and received internal injuries. He and Mrs. Augusta Johnson, who was overcome by smoke, will probably die. The damage amounts to $40,000, but several Gloucester skippers just back from the mackerel beds lost all the proceeds of their season's fishing, sums varying from $200 to $1,000.

Attempted Murder and Suicide.

Boston, Nov. 29.—"I'll give you a divorce now; for you'll never get one from a judge," shouted Alfred Britton to his wife today in front of the city hospital. As he spoke he fired twice at the woman and then sent three bullets into his own head and died almost instantly. His wife escaped with a flesh wound in the arm.

Britton tried to kill his wife six months ago and in consequence received a six month term in the House of Correction. Just before the term expired, four week ago, Mrs. Britton secured a divorce on grounds of cruelty and non-support. This morning she met him face to face. "I hear you got a divorce," said Britton. "Yes, nearly a month ago," replied the trembling woman. "You lie," shouted the man. "But I'll give you a divorce now." As Britton pulled a revolver the woman started to run, and his aim was so unsteady that she escaped with only a slight wound. Then the husband turned the pistol on himself, firing three shots into his head, any one of which have caused death.

Arrest of Bandits.

Naples Nov. 29.—Seven of the bandits who kidnapped and tortured Marquis Giuseppe Cito until he agreed to pay them $1,800 ransom, were arrested today. The outlaw were rushed to prison to save them from mob violence. One of the prisoners has already made a full confession. The Marquis's hands and feet were burned by his captors and several teeth torn out to induce him to write to his friends for money. When the outlaws threatened to pull all his teeth if he yielded.

Mr. Bryan in Connecticut.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 29.—William Jennings Bryan arrived in this city this morning and will spend three days in Connecticut during which time he will make half a dozen speeches, none of which, with one possible exception, say his friends, will have anything of a political tinge about them. The occasion of the visit of Mr. Bryan is to honor the memory of his friend, Philo S. Bennett, late of this city and of the firm of Bennett and Sloan, of New York.

Town Burning.

Butte, Mont, Nov. 29.—A girl telephone operator, who stuck to her post until the exchange building began to burn, told the Butte newspaper over the telephone early today that the town of Cody, Wyo., was being destroyed by fire. All the business district of the town had been eaten up by the flames before she severed the wire connection, she said. This would mean a loss of about $90,000.

Charged with Defalcation.

Havana, Nov. 29.—Secretary Felix Daehne, of the German legation here, has been arrested on the German minister's complaint and is held in prison charged with a defalcation in his native country.

OPERATOR'S MISTAKE.

The supposed robber, killed by Night Operator George Herrod late Wednesday night at Crawfordsville, Ind., proves to be Harry McClain, of Clinton, who was visiting his aunt in Crawfordsville, and who left her home for the railroad station, saying he was going to visit friends near Terra Haute. At McClain's side, as he lay dead on the platform, to which he had run after being mortally wounded, was found $1.11, and he is believed to have approached the ticket window with the intention of buying a ticket when Harrod, who thought he was a robber, fired upon him. Harrod was held up a week ago by robbers and was suspicious of every stranger who has since entered the station. He is in jail pending a preliminary hearing.

J. W. Blankenship, fifty-five years old, was found dead in the southern suburbs of Bristol, yesterday morning, where his body had lain since early Wednesday night. He had choked to death while eating a can of potted ham, part of which lay beside his body.

THE ELKS.

In every city in the United States where a lodge of Elks exists memorial services will be held Sunday evening to pay loving tribute to those members who have "crossed over the river." One of the cardinal doctrines of the Elks is to "write the faults of their brethren in the sand and their virtues on the tablets of memory." The exercises in Alexandria are always well attended.

The services will be held at the Opera House and an elaborate programme has been prepared, including music by an orchestra, the Mendelssohn Quartet, and the following soloists: Mrs. Thomas A. Hulfish, Miss Kate Smoot, George H. Evans, Kenneth W. Ogden, Frank Field, J. Harris Franklin, M. L. Dinwiddie, and E. Forrest Birrell. The accompanist will be Mrs. C. G. Lennon.

Representative Morris Sheppard, of Texas, a member of the order, will deliver the annual memorial address. Invocation will be pronounced by Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, and Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will pronounce the benediction.

HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY.

James J. Hamilton, alleged to be a deserter from the United States Marine Corps, was arraigned before Judge Kimball of the United States branch of the Police Court in Washington Wednesday for a preliminary hearing on the charge of larceny from the United States government, the specific accusation being the theft of 114 bars of copper and brass ingots from the navy yard, the total value of which is estimated to be $740. Hamilton entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was remanded to prison under $1,000 bond for the action of the grand jury. Hamilton, alias Burke, was arrested in Alexandria recently by Lieutenant Bettis and Officer Gill. They had about 3,500 pounds of copper and brass ingots in their possession at the time.

MR. CARLIN.

Mr. C. C. Carlin, Congressman elect, was asked this morning by a reporter of the Gazette if he had read the card of Mr. R. L. Gordon published in the Gazette of last evening. He replied that he had and was not surprised to learn of Mr. Gordon's candidacy. He stated that while he intended to be a candidate in the election next November he hoped that he was not to be diverted from the discharge of his public duties by any political contest commencing at this early date; that there is much work to be done for the district at Washington; that he purposes to discharge fully his duties in this regard, and hopes that his interests will not suffer from this attitude.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Harriet W. MacDonough, who died on Wednesday, took place this afternoon from the residence, 219 south Royal street. Rev W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated. The pallbearers were Messrs. Frank Dyson, Wm. Wood, Peter Astryke, Samuel Stokeley, Herbert Ramey and George Schwarzman. Interment was in the cemetery of the M. E. Church South.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning, and both were postponed in consequence of the absence of material witnesses.

John Bryant, colored, was charged with the larceny of beer from Jos. Breen, and Clarence Jones, colored, with assaulting Pearl Kid, also colored, with a catrifle.

SHOT GIRL WITH CATRIFLE.

Clarence Jones, a colored youth, was arrested early last night charged with shooting a colored girl named Pearl Kid with a catrifle. The ball struck the girl on the back, passed through her clothing and made a bruise on her body. Jones, it is alleged, discharged the catrifle at other children in the city. The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning, but the trial of the case was postponed.

THE MIDGETS CASE.

Judge Barley this morning entered an order in the Corporation Court directing City Sergeant Cox to proceed to Fredericksburg and bring George Midgets, colored, convicted of murder, to this city, and to arraign him in court on December 9, at 11 o'clock, the first day of the term, at which time the condemned man will be sentenced to be hanged some time during next January.

THE PASSION PLAY.

There was a large and appreciative audience at the Opera House last night to witness the moving pictures representing "The Passion Play," produced by the Metropolitan Moving Picture Company. The exhibition, which lasted over two hours, was for the benefit of the Young Men's Club of the M. P. Church.

DEATH OF MRS. DEMENT.

Mrs. Jane C. Dement, eighty years of age, widow of Noble Dement, died yesterday evening at her home, No. 422 south Fairfax street. The deceased was a native of Maryland, but had resided in Alexandria for many years. She is survived by a son, Samuel Dement, and a daughter Mrs. Charles N. Steele.

BENEFIT PERFORMANCE.

A meeting of the Elks' Dramatic Club was held last night at the residence of A. D. Montier, director. It was decided to reproduce the "Merry Cobbler," on Thursday evening, December 12, at the Opera House, for the benefit of Policeman Lyles, who is confined to his home by a serious illness.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Rev. J. B. McLaughlin, of Washington, was granted leave to celebrate the rites of matrimony in Virginia.

Thos. Waddy vs. Harry H. Simpson motion for judgment; jury and case in progress.

"A PAIR OF COUNTRY KIDS."

"A Pair of Country Kids," a rural comedy drama, is the play announced at the Opera House tonight and from all reports that have reached Manager Underwood the country kids are a lively pair and seem to be making a large number of friends everywhere. The play is highly spoken of as a clean up-to-date rural comedy drama, true to nature and with all those lovable folks "down on the farm," that we all remember after we have moved to the city, or that we meet every day where we have been content to remain close to nature with the homespun folks. This company is made up of real actors who can act, sing and dance and will give you an evening of genuine amusement and you will surely laugh at the kids, for they are busy constantly getting in and out of mischief.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Yesterday evening about 5 o'clock Norman Moran, aged about twelve years, son of Mr. W. H. H. Moran, editor of the Manassas Journal, accidentally shot himself in the side of the head with a double-barrelled shot-gun, and died immediately. The sad accident occurred while the boy was playing soldier with other boys, the gun having slipped from his hands as he was raising it to present arms, and which in some way was discharged. The sad accident cast a gloom over the town and the surrounding neighborhood.

MASS MEETING FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

As one of the preparatory services for the Evangliatic meetings to be held at the Second Presbyterian Church next week, there will be a special service for boys and girls Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Short talks will be made showing the part the young people will have in the meetings. The singing will be led by a chorus of young people. There will be a seat in the church for every boy and girl in the city, and it is expected that there will be a full house.

NOT A CONFERENCE.

Mr. Lewis H. Machen said today that the report that the friends of Mr. R. L. Gordon held a conference at Mr. Machen's office on Wednesday was incorrect. Mr. Gordon, he said, called at his office that day in company with a friend of his from Culpeper county, in the same manner as he called on a number of other democrats in the city. There were no others present at Mr. Machen's office at the time Mr. Gordon and his friend were there.

PERSONAL.

Governor Swanson has requested Judge Barley to preside over the Circuit Court for Alexandria county for the purpose of disposing of two cases now on the docket. The judge, however, has been unable to comply with the request on account of press of business, and has been compelled to decline.

Mrs. Charles Cogan has gone to Philadelphia, Pa., to spend a few days.

WORK FINISHED.

The work of paving upper King street has been finished and there is now an unbroken line of vitrified brick paving from the river to the corporation line. The work has been done in an excellent manner and it is hoped that the county and the railroad company will soon extend the paving to the union station.

BASKETBALL.

A game of basketball was played at Schuler's Hall last night between the Alexandria Athletic Association's club and the Belvideres of Baltimore. The game was won by the visitors by a score of 60 to 4. A large crowd was in attendance. After the game a dance was given.

LECTURE.

Attorney Robinson Moncure will lecture to the students of the Pitmanic Business School in the Alexandria National Bank building at 8 o'clock tonight. Subject, Business Law. All are invited.

Miss Emma T. Stabler, of Sandy Spring, Maryland, will have an exhibition and sale of water color sketches, picture frames, and other articles suitable for Christmas gifts, at 215 north Washington street, on Saturday, November 30th, from 2 to 5, and from 7 to 9 p. m. GRAY SUITINGS,

Yard, 29c

Just when you are thinking of dress goods for gift purposes we offer you these famous Berkshire Mills 38-inch Gray Suitings at nearly half price. An entire dress length need not cost you more than two dollars. These suitings are on every counter in Washington at fifty cents per yard. An overstocked jobber sold them to us at a big loss to enable him to raise ready cash. We can best describe this lot by stating that they are all grays and come in dark, medium and dark shades of blacks, mixtures and plaids. Some few have overplaided contrasting colors of red, green and blue respectively. When this lot is gone you won't find values to equal these at this or any other store—so hurry. It will take but one day to clean them up.

NOTICE

——TO THE——

ALEXANDRIA PUBLIC.

I have this day accepted the agency for the Patent Fin Hot Water Heater. It is now on exhibition in my store where you can inspect same. It is the most modern up-to-date Gas-heated Hot Water Radiator in the World.

When it is considered that we must depend on some method of artificially heating our homes and public places practically half the year, and that during this time our life is largely spent in doors in an artifical atmosphere and temperature, it certainly seems natural that we should use methods of heating that would not endanger health (by violating Nature's laws of physics and physiology), nor be needlessly expensive and wasteful. Yet, the fact is, a very small proportion of our homes and business places are healthfully, comfortably and economically heated.

The Patent Fin Hot Water Radiator does this or otherwise you may return it. Come in and let us explain it.

A Sensitive Monkey.

The most pathetic of all monkey stories is one which Grant-Duff has somewhere recorded. The Dublin zoo had a famous ape whose delight was the friendship of the principal of the establishment. He never passed the cage without a handshake and a friendly chat until once a member of the royal family went visiting. That day the principal, too engrossed with the duties of showing the august guest round the place, overlooked his poor relation. The ape grieved and sulked and when he went again to its cage turned savagely from him. The human friend was sent absolutely to Coventry by his humble admirer. And straightway the health of the sulking, sorrowing animal began to decline. It fell a victim to consumption. When the end was obviously at hand the principal went to look. The ape seemed to brighten up at his approach. It crept feebly to the front of its cage, thrust out its hand for a grasp of reconciliation and forgiveness, then lay down and died.—St. James' Gazette.

The Wrong Goldsmith.

"A friend of mine," said a political orator, "was once a good deal annoyed while addressing a meeting by a man in the front row who howled like a dog. At every telling point in my friend's argument this man would emit frightful howls and spoil the effect.

"My friend asked the name of the man and was told that it was Harry Loff. Then he said in a loud voice:

"'Mr. Loff, it is plain that our friend Goldsmith had you in mind when he said:

"The watchdog's voice that bayed the whispering wind,
And the loud Loff that spoke the vacant mind.

"'He said that, did he?' cried Loff furiously, and he turned and struck a little fat man behind him a hard blow over the head.

"It was only after a five minutes' scrimmage and much profane abuse that Mr. Loff was convinced that the Goldsmith referred to was the long dead poet and not the little fat man of the same name."

Pat's Drams.

A physician not long ago was called to see an Irishman and among other directions told him to take an ounce of whisky three times a day. A day or so later he made another visit and found the man, while not so sick, undeniably drunk.

"How did this happen?" the physician demanded of Pat's wife, who was hovering about solicitously.

"Sure, dochter, an' 'tis just what you ordered an' no more that he had," she protested.

"I said one ounce of whisky three times a day. That could not make him drunk," the physician said. "He has had much more than that."

"Nivur a drop more, dochter, dear," she declared. "Sure, an' Oi didn't know just how much an ounce was, so Oi wint to the drug store an' asked, an' the lad—he's a broth of a boy, too—told me that an ounce was sixteen drams, an' Pat has had thim regular an' no more."—London Tit-Bits.

Beauty of Inequality.

The beauty as well as the happiness of the universe requires inequality. Equal lines, smooth surfaces and eternal plains have no beauty. We must have hill and dale, mountain and valley, sea and land, suns of all magnitudes, worlds of all sizes, minds of all dimensions and persons and faces of divers casts and colors to constitute a beautiful and happy world. We must have sexes, conditions and circumstances—empires, nations and families—diversities in person, mind, manners, in order to the communication and reception of happiness; hence our numerous and various wants are not only incentives to action, but sources of pleasure, both simple and complex—physical, intellectual and moral.—Alexander Campbell.

The Jewel of Forgiveness.

Nothing is more moving to man than the spectacle of reconciliation. Our weaknesses are thus indemnified and are not too costly, being the price we pay for the hour of forgiveness, and the archangel who has never felt anger has reason to envy the man who subdues it. When thou forgivest, the man who has pierced thy heart stands to thee in the relation of the sea worm that perforates the shell of the mussel, which straightway closes the wound with a pearl.—Richter.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for seven years, and it has always proved to be a reliable remedy. We have found that it would do more than the manufacturers claim for it. It is especially good for croup and whooping cough,

He Fought at Gettysburg.

David Parker, of Fayette, N. Y., who lost a foot at Gettysburg, writes: "Electric Bitters have done me more good than any medicine I ever took. For several years I had stomach trouble, and paid out much money for medicine to little purpose until I began taking Electric Bitters. I would not take $500 for what they have done for me." Grand tonic for the aged and for female weaknesses. Great alterative and body builder; best of all for lame back and weak kidneys. Guaranteed by all druggist. 50c

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
